RAGGED & TAGGED & FLAGGED

Caroline Chisholm, Domesticity and the Victorian Goldfields by Dr Flossie Peitsch

27 June – 11 October 2026

This exhibition-installation features a series of white household pillowcases embellished with simple quilting designs using once-fashionable burgundy damask table napkins. Hung like 'flags' and zig-zagging across the exhibition space like a clothesline, attached to the 'flags' are paper parcel tags inscribed with the names or roles of unheralded women of the Victorian Goldfields.

Dr Flossie Peitsch is currently undertaking a Doctor of Philosophy through Federation University, Ballarat. This exhibition forms part of her thesis on Caroline Chisholm.

Opening: 2pm, Saturday 27 June 2026

A free community workshop: 2pm Sunday 19 July 2026.

Honk! Untitled Goose Exhibition 28 February – 14 June 2026

Enter a world of comedy, chaos and calamity in Honk! Untitled Goose Exhibition, an exhibition that dives into the making of global-hit videogame Untitled Goose Game, by Melbourne based game developers House House.

A game of stealth and slapstick about a naughty goose on the loose in an unsuspecting village, Untitled Goose Game was released in 2019 to worldwide acclaim. Appealing to both videogame experts and the uninitiated, this exhibition gives audiences fresh insight into the game's hilariously mischievous humour and development.

An ACMI touring exhibition.

Free family friendly celebration:

11am to 2pm,
Sunday 1 March 2026

Central Goldfields Shire Council acknowledges and extends appreciation for the Dja Dja Wurrung People, the Traditional Owners of the land that we are on.

We pay our respects to leaders and Elders past, present and emerging for they hold the memories, the traditions, the culture and the hopes of all Dja Dja Wurrung People.

We express our gratitude in the sharing of this land, our sorrow for the personal, spiritual and cultural costs of that sharing and our hope that we may walk forward together in harmony and in the spirit of healing.
